

Anu Joyson is a Registered Nurse trained in India and then worked as a registered nurse in Dubai within paediatrics, genetics and haematology. Anu subsequently went on to complete her masters in Nursing with honours from the University of Aberdeen (Scotland) while working as a registered nurse in neuro rehabilitation in Aberdeen Royal Infirmary, Scotland before starting work as a research nurse. Within the Aberdeen Royal Infirmary, Scotland she has worked as a Senior Research Nurse since 2007 working in such areas as Stroke, Emergency Departments, Clinical Pharmacology, Elderly Medicine, Rheumatology and Surgical including Neuro Surgery.

Anu also worked as an honorary lecturer for University of Aberdeen teaching postgraduate clinical pharmacology and nursing students and operational manager for cardiology, stroke and clinical pharmacology research units leading a team of 18+ research nurses. Anu was until the point she left Scotland in 2016 one of three ICH GCP trainers in Grampian.